Woodford Clay's Debut at Saratoga.

The Courier-Journal of Wednesday contained the following special from Saratoga:

"Woodford Clay a young Kentucky owner, made a successful debut Tuesday as an aspirant for Eastern turf honors with his Sir Dixon—Merdin filly, Memories, winner of the first race.
Memories was unknown to Eastern race-goers and her victory was a bit of a surprise. She has been considered a filly above the average class by the Westerners, however, since she ran second to Advantage, the clever filly in Thomas C. McDowell's stable, which died a short time ago. Mr. Clay was not here to see his filly win. He was compelled to go to New York on business. He is a son of Col. E. F. Clay, proprietor of Runnymede Stud, the home of Hindoo and Sir Dixon and Memories was bred at Runnymede. Mr. Clay has also that three-year-old filly Flying Ship, winner of the Eaglewood Stakes and other races at Washington Park, and his colors, a combination of pale blue and orange, will likely be seen in front many times hereafter in the East."
